Customer Reviews

*I received this book free from Cleis Press in exchange for an honest review*This was a fun book to read. There were moments I was laughing so hard I couldn't read and others that made me think 'Hell No!', but if anything it was definitely fascinating."Kissing is one of the most sensual of all the acts of flirting, foreplay, seduction, and sex we can enjoy."I think this book could be beneficial to anyone who wants to obtain a little extra kissing knowledge. Some of the tips worked very well on my husband, others I plan on using for my characters as I write their next kissing scenes, and there's a few I'd like to try just to see what kind of reaction I'll get.Of course it being A Field Guide means it has many how to's. There are lip exercises, checklists, tips, tricks, techniques, lessons on using your senses, reading signs, and how to make yourself feel sexy. There's even a quiz that will help you understand what kind of kisser you are and later in the book will show you techniques based on your type. I'm a type C: Hot Lipsâ |yay me! There were a few things noted that I could have gone without knowing and/or reading. Like thinking of kissing and increased saliva as a plaque-dispersing bath. EW! Licking teeth, sharing a drink and/or candy, tickling, and biting are definitely out for me. Double EW! I think that before you do anything too bold that you make sure and read the signs of your kissing partner or better yetâ |ask! My Favorite Quotes: "If only we could spot the lousy kissers, fix the one we like, and if we just had ninjalike kissing skills, we'd be the baddest girls on the block with puckers that make urban legends seem tame.
