The Miracle Morning For Real Estate Agents: It's Your Time To Rise And Shine (the Miracle Morning Book Series 2)

Synopsis

All real estate agents share one thing in common: we're all striving to get to the next level of personal and professional success. We want to take our lives, our businesses, and our selves to the next level. What if you could get there, faster than you ever thought possible, by simply changing how you start your day? The original Miracle Morning book took the Real Estate industry by storm, transforming the lives and businesses of tens of thousand of agents. Now, The Miracle Morning for Real Estate Agents will do exactly that for you, by taking you on a journey into the lives of top-producing agent Rick Masters and his wife, top-producing lender Michelle Masters. First introduced to you in the best-selling book, The 7 Levels of Communication, real estate professionals Rick and Michelle are now married and expecting their first child, but the demands of their industry have left them overworked, overweight, stressed out, and unfulfilled. Something's got to change. They attend a seminar and meet other agents who have transformed their lives, both personally and professionally, using a simple 30-day challenge. Although Michelle is optimistic, Rick is skeptical. But with nothing to lose and a lot to gain, Rick agrees to sign up. Little does he know that you really can transform any, or every, area of your life in just 30 days. You're about to discover how.

Customer Reviews

Real estate doesn't really come with an instruction manual. Everyone I met has their own take on how they practice. Some are significantly more successful than others. By significant, I mean the difference between earning $50,000 a year working 50 hours a week and earning $500,000 for the same time, money, and effort. And after almost 10 years of researching and studying the best practices from the most successful (innovative) agents in the world, I believe this book is a preeminent precursor to being coached by true masters of real estate. Like any highly successful business owner, real estate professionals must first have a mental aptitude for achievement. That is not easily taught. The value in this book rests on top of this preexisting desire to achieve and provides a simple step-by-step process to leverage the most important asset in any business - time. Particularly the most valuable time in the day, the morning. What you will discover inside this book is a single fact. Your time in the morning is worth more than any other time during the day. And this book offers "morning success rituals" that build a "habit infrastructure" that any agent (or broker) can begin practicing in small, but significant ways which compound to provide greater focus, clarity, health, and personal satisfaction... not this surprisingly translates into higher documented incomes and less reported stress. One of my favorites quotes sums up the power of this book... "Seek the best to be the best" and if you are competing to be the best you can be, this book is an introduction to a high order of thinking, living, earning, acting, interacting, and transacting that you will find transcends real estate's implicit promise of "financial freedom" into a life build by design with intention and purpose.

Stick with the Original While I appreciated the book and learned some things from this version, it skims over the content of the original Miracle Mornings. It isn't nearly as comprehensive as the 1st Miracle Mornings. Seems like the authors wanted an additional revenue stream. Still has quite a bit of great information. If you read the original and then want more, read the original again. Not sure, there is enough content to justify spending time on this book, when there is already a better solution.

œ Before The Miracle Morning, I woke up in the morning early to prospect; however, I had no real plan. Everything was sporadic and chaotic. Now, with The Miracle Morning and having taken the 30-Day Challenge, I have a plan and a system to be more productive in my business, and more importantly in life. So far, I have lost 22 pounds and on my way to losing 50. I get up every morning and workout as part of my Miracle Morning. I am more organized and am helping more people. I tell everyone I know about the 30-Day Challenge and have referred over 60 people so far. I truly believe that the Miracle Morning 30-Day Challenge is a way to change your destiny.â •â "Dan Grieb, Team Leader, The Dan Grieb Team @ Keller Williams and founder of The Elite REO Network

Holy smokes, this was an awful read. As a Realtor and real estate instructor, I can assure any new (or seasoned for that matter) agent that you will get very, very little out of this book. When it's not being a not-at-all subtle pitch for their other books or website, it's little more than a beginner's guide to a beginner's guide to visualization and affirmations, couched in a needless fiction of a Realtor husband and his loan officer wife, just to lengthen the book. Not implying visualization and affirmations are without merit, just stating that marketing this book as having anything to do with real estate is pretty felonious. I'm guessing the authors have the exact same book for accountants (and doctors and lawyers and ...) where they simply swap the real estate seminar with an accounting seminar and change the main characters as such. Ugh, I'm dumber for having read this.

This is a amazing book that leads you step by step to show you the way to set your life up for success every day. It is simple,if you want to make changes in your life that will impact you on a daily bases. If you want to reach your dreams and beyond, read the book, follow the plan that so many other successful people have done. Then hold on and get ready for the ride of your life.

Wow.Just WOW.Like me, you've probably heard each of the individual pieces of what's presented in this book, if you've done any personal development over the years.Wake up, get moving, exercise, positive self-talk.. all that.What's powerful is that this book puts it together into a step-by-step PLAN for your morning, with very little left for you to over-think, ponder, and find excusing to procrastinate!Written as a parable, it's a powerful and exciting story that grabs you, drags you along, and leaves you with only ONE question:Do you have the discipline to wake up that FIRST MORNING and start to follow the plan!As a personal testimonial, the first morning I did so (and I'm NOT a morning person), I was talking to my wife when she finally came downstairs and at one point she stopped, put her hands up and said "What the H is wrong with you this morning? I've never seen you like this!"(in a good way!)On the fence? Don't be! GET IT NOW and if you implement it you will find yourself more productive in the first few hours than you may have been over entire work days, with more energy, clear headedness, and optimism than you normally can string together!
